

This lush new Boutique Hacienda sits high in the mountains of Pérez Zeledon, in the southern region of Costa Rica, in what is one of the country's best and last, to be-discovered, hideaways.

In the Valle de El General of what is the last almost unexplored area in Costa Rica, AltaGracia was born as the only "Boutique Hacienda" in the country, open to a selected public seeking to welcome each guest in their own unique and personal style. Like that of a true Hacienda, its house-style welcome is what defines it. Encouraged by the life led by those that enjoy the true wonders of hacienda living, gourmet eating and Spa life, it was the missing piece for the affluent traveler in southern Costa Rica.

Guests can choose to be picked up by elegantly saddled horses, plane side, as they land directly at The Hacienda, or enjoy custom-made tours that will take them whale-watching 10 meters off the water's surface on its own private fleet of ultra lights.

Focused on the indulgences that can only be led in a true mountain retreat, it exemplifies the true meaning of "Pura Vida"
